

National Unity Day, 31st October 2020 Celebration at RDSDE/ NSTI(W) Trivandrum

National Unity Day is popularly known as Rashtriya Ekta Diwas. The 31st of October is the natal day of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel. He was a famous personality for unity throughout the entire nation. National Unity Day is observed on the 31st of October every year all over India. It is celebrated to memorize the Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel, who united the nation. National Unity is the strength that inspires every citizen in India. It is the best way to remove inequalities among Indians. National Unity is one of the essential aspects to build a strong nation.

In memory of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the Government of India has constructed a huge statue of the Iron Man of India near the Narmada River in Gujarat. Also, to acknowledge the struggles and sacrifices of the First Deputy Prime Minister of independent India- Sardar Patel, the government of India announced the National Unity Day on his birth anniversary. In the official statement issued by the Home Ministry of India in 2014, it was stated that National Unity Day “will provide an opportunity to re-affirm the inherent strength and resilience of our nation to withstand the actual and potential threats to the unity, integrity and security of our country.”

Every person in every Country is used to take a pledge about behaving in a proper way in the Country to develop a Nation to do all the possible activities for the betterment of the people. It is very important for every people to develop that thing by which every people can be able to get every type of Facility and Services for their own benefit and profit. It is very necessary for all the people to get all the tasks in a proper manner to carry out all the activities in a proper way with the confidence of every people to achieve success in it.
