

Republic Day, 26th January 2021 Celebration at RDSDE/ NSTI(W) Trivandrum

Republic Day is considered a national day of importance and is celebrated every year on the 26th of January. Republic Day is celebrated because India got its Constitution on this day. A committee was formed after few days when India got its Independence on the 15th of August. And on 29th August, a constituent assembly was formed. Dr. B.R. Ambedkar became the first chairperson of this committee. The handwritten copies of the Constitution were signed by the members of the constituent assembly in January 1950. After two days, on 26th January 1950, it was announced as Republic Day.
